TABMA-hosted Annual Gala Dinner and Awards
Drinks 6:30 pm – Dinner, 7:30 pm

Forest and Wood Products Australia; the Australian Timber Importers Federation, and Timber Merchants and Building Material Association are joining forces to stage the timber industry's must attend event for 2013.

Building Stronger Value Chains will cover key aspects of the timber industry supply chain, together with wider aspects of the timber industry's business environment, wood-based product marketing and matters related to company-level business success.

Yes it is the Australian timber industry's day of the year for 2013 – you need to be there!

The seminar speaking line up will include leading timber supply chain experts, policy-makers, marketing specialists, technology providers and regulatory authorities.

Building Stronger Value Chains will reinforce industry goals of continuing to assist in growing industry capability, product and market innovation, enhancing competitiveness and commercial success. The seminar will be directed at updating current industry issues, stimulating new ways of thinking and reinvigorating industry enthusiasm.

Building Stronger Value Chains will also examine elements of an integrated timber products value chain, from forests and plantations, through manufacturing, distribution, marketing and commercial and residential markets.

Building Stronger Value Chains will also emphasise the value of product innovation, creativity and marketing, supply chain collaboration and dynamics, efficiency synergies along the value chain, plus emerging market opportunities.

Building Stronger Value Chains has been designed to appeal to the broad cross section of companies and organisations in the timber value chain, their suppliers, supporters and related businesses and interests.

The seminar will provide timber industry value chain participants with fresh ideas, perspectives and information that will help build bigger markets and better business futures and encourage working collaboratively towards solving industry issues and realising opportunities.
